For example, membership extension has grown steadily with almost no stimulation. But even this has entailed much exacting, pains taking work on the part of the chairmen of the membership and eligibility committees who in the persons of Mrs. R. L. Ireland, Mrs. James L. Houghteling, Miss Mary Magoun Brown, Mrs. C. C. Bolton, Jr., Miss Yssabella G. Walters, and Mrs. Edna Whitelaw Ketchum have given, over a period of seven years, gratuitous labor and thought, which can not be adequately appraised. The work of the eligibility committee has required and has had a genuine human, as well as professional, interest which...
