Weasels

By Dolan, Elys

Nosy Crow, 2014. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: [T]here's much pleasure to be had in hunting down all the individual stories and piecing together the odd ongoing plotline. However, Weasels offers even broader appeal through its humor, which is laced with absurdity, and steeped in a campiness and affectionate satire that suggests cartoons and pop-culture memes. The result is an appealing combination of sophisticated yet goofy humor and undemanding text that will draw many youngsters, and the book's appeal to a wide age range makes it an excellent choice for older and younger kids to share and snort over together. Weasels is just the mammalian madhouse to move kids from Anno to the anarchic. Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books (starred review) With generous visual detail, [Dolan] unveils the numerous characters, situations, and machinery involved in the conspiracy. Dozens of subplots and personalities crowd the pages. . Those who take the time to explore the riot of sardonic cartoonery will be well rewarded. School Library Journal (starred review) Very entertaining. With a nod to James Bond, the evil mastermind wears a monocle and Nehru jacket and strokes a white pet;...
