Halsey on the Bill to Provide a Statue of Robert Edward Lee: To Be Placed in Statuary Hall in the Capitol at Washington, D. C., Delivered in the Senate of Virginia, Feb'y 6, 1903 [The preservation in these pages of this just and admirable exposition will be held in satisfaction, generally in this country, as well as in the broad domain of civilization. It would seem incredible to conceive of a dissentient to the meed due an exemplar of the noblest embodiment of the patriot, citizen and soldier, of which history has cognizance. - Ed.] Mr. President: In presenting the Bill now under consideration, I did so from no desire to offend Northern sentiment, or to re-open old wounds now happily healed. Rather I did so from entirely opposite motives, for, believing that the feeling of good will between the sections is now greater than ever before, I considered this an opportune time for Virginia to accept the invitation so long held out to her by the Federal...
