

Come Summer, Come Love

By Isabel Cabot

Montlake Romance, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 197 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. It was summer again, and Eve Colbert left her job in the city to return to Groversport, where she and her fifteen-year-old brother would live together in the cottage their parents had left them. It was the only time of the year she and Derk were together for the other months, the boy went to boarding school and the young woman was unsure of her ability to handle the teenager. But that was the least of her problems. Dr. Samuel J. MacKenzie had taken over Dr. Dougall's practice for the summer. Sam, whom Eve had adored years ago, when she was a teenager. How could she cope with being his nurse, with being in the same office with him every day? Her situation was not aided by the fact that everyone in Groversport knew everyone else's business. She had to contend with the gossipy Potter sisters, the inquisitive Medea, whose seashell interpretations were the talk of Cape Molly, and with young Nadine Aylward, a disturbed girl just getting over her uncle's death. His drowning the summer before had greatly...
