Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO reviewed the: (1) United Nations Environment Programs (UNEP) accounting practices, financial reserves, and general efficiency and effectiveness; and (2) extent of U. S. influence in the organization. GAO found that UNEP: (1) received financing from the United Nations budget, trust funds, other miscellaneous income, and voluntary contributions to the Environment Fund, to which the United States was a major contributor; (2) for its 1988 through 1989 biennial budget, allocated 25.8 million for operating expenses, 60 million for its environmental programs and projects, and 2 million for its fund program reserves; (3) adjusted its financial reserves each biennium to equal 7.5 percent of its budget to guarantee the Environment Funds financial liquidity and integrity; (4) administered 22 trust funds with a total balance of 17.4 million in December 1987; (5) has successfully created various conventions and protocols on environmental conservation, addressed several environmental issues of global importance, and coordinated several environmental initiatives of special interest to the United States; and (6) made several organizational changes and improved management procedures after conducting a comprehensive...
