Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Teachers Leaflet Supplement to Blue Bulletin, September, 1920, Vol. 6 The following resolution was passed at the latest meeting of the State Superintendent, the Commissioners and the State Supervisor of Physical Education: Whereas, The Blue Bulletin is the, official organ of the State Department of Education; and Whereas, There are certain definite principles and policies of school organization and administration advocated by the State Office which should be more closely and intensively emphasized; therefore be it Resolved, That the Blue Bulletin, until further action by its editors, shall be committed to the following policies which shall be printed in each issue: The State Department of Education advocates these principles of action and asks that they be supported by superintendents, teachers, trustees, school patrons and all other citizens: 1. Real and attractive educational opportunities for all members of every community. 2. Physical education for all, giving development as the foundation of all efficiency and leading to control of health conditions throughout life. 3. Fuller opportunity for children and adults to learn and practice the principles of citizenship, establishing thereby high national ideals and right moral responses. 4. The arousing of public interest in public education through the press and by means of parent-teacher and other community organizations. 5. California one hundred per cent literate. 6. Americanization of foreign-born residents. 7. Democracy in educational organization, expressed by participation of supervisors and teachers in adopting and carrying out school policies. 8. Wages for teachers sufficient to maintain a proper standard of living and to provide for continuous professional growth. 9. The union or consolidation of school districts wherever feasible, for the greater benefit of the children. 10. School...
