

Falling for June

By Ryan Winfield

Simon & Schuster. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Falling for June, Ryan Winfield, David Hadley is 51 years old, lonely, overweight, depressed, and contemplating suicide. Every day after work, David, a reluctant accountant, climbs the 69 flights of stairs in his office building, the tallest in Seattle. And each day when he reaches the top step, he places his hand on the handle of the always locked roof access door and makes himself a promise that if the door ever opens he'll walk to the edge and jump. His routine quickly becomes mindless habit, until the day he finds the door unlocked. Standing 900 feet above the concrete sidewalk, David is startled by a woman who appears next to him on the ledge. "What if you change your mind half way down?" she asks. It's a question for which David has no good answer. After a brief and mysterious interaction, the woman leaps from the building herself, leaving David on the ledge to watch as her parachute opens and she disappears into the fog below. Captivated by their conversation, David develops an obsession to learn the identity of the Barefoot BASE Jumper. It's almost a full year later, after...
